

Your Club Membership is Coming Soon

With 2010 just weeks away, it's time to prepare for your full membership in the Holiday Inn Club. For the many of you who took advantage of the exclusive special offer to visit our flagship Orlando resort this fall, you got a fantastic preview of the great family fun that is the hallmark of our entire Club Member Resort family. For others, your opportunity is coming soon with full member access to all our resorts and benefits of the Club!

Your RCI membership impacts your transition

Your current RCI membership and ownership status can affect when you transfer to full Club membership. A postcard mailer is being sent to you indicating your ownership status, and additional important information is now available in the new FAQ section entitled Your Membership Transition (click here to view). Please review this information now so you can have all your questions answered and ensure a smooth transition into the Club in 2010.

Don't forget: Your RCI dues are included in Holiday Inn Club membership

We are now processing your RCI payments through the Club. Going forward, you will receive your bill for annual Holiday Inn Club membership dues (which includes your RCI membership). DO NOT pay your membership fees directly to RCI. To make a payment call (877) 606-2582. For more information on maintenance fees and billing please click here>>.

We have been preparing for your membership and are excited that it is almost here. If you have yet to review the wealth of Club information provided in the FAQ, now is a great time to become familiar with it. And remember, keep checking back with this site to find the latest information about your resort and transition to Holiday Inn Club.

Sincerely,

Patrick K. Connolly
